Sec. 28. Be it further enacted, That said board of commissioners shall have power to regulate the manner in which provisions may be sold in the streets and markets of said town, and to regulate the manner in which the public markets and streets in said town may be used ; and to affix penalties for the breach of their ordinances, which shall be recovered in the name of the Commissioners of the town of Concord before any court having competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 29. Be it further enacted, That said board of commissioners shall have power to make rules and regulations for enforcing the orderly conduct of slaves and free negroes within said town, and to impose punishments for the breach thereof.

Sec. 30. That the court of pleas and quarter sessions for the county of Cabarrus shall grant a license to retail spirituous liquors by the small measure within said town to no person who shall not have first obtained from the town clerk a certificate of the assent of said board of commissioners to his obtaining said license, which certificate shall be prima facie evidence of good moral character in the applicant, so as to supersede the necessity of proof by two witnesses as now required; and it shall be lawful for said board of commissioners to require the said applicant to pay to the town treasurer a sum not exceeding ten dollars, before the said town clerk shall give the certificate of said assent by the said board of commissioners.

Sec. 31. Be it further enacted, That all the forfeitures and penalties which are imposed by this act, or which shall or may be imposed by the ordinances of said board of commissioners, and which are not hereby, or shall not be by said ordinances directed to be recovered in any other manner or to any other use, shall be sued for and recovered in the name of the commissioners for the town of Concord ; and all forfeitures so recovered, shall be paid to the town treasurer for use of said town.

Sec. 32. Be it further enacted, That the limits of the town of Concord shall hereafter be as follows, to wit: begin-
